

*Captain Cook marked the rocky outcrop
on his charts, May 10th, 1770.*

*It was originally called "Whibay-gamba"
by the traditional custodians of the land and waters,
the Worimi and Awabakal people.*

Nobbys

*In 1797, Lieutenant John Shortland entered what he described as a
'very fine river'
which he named after Governor Hunter.*

Nobbys Dawn

*Stockton was one of the first places
explored by Lieutenant Shortland on September 9th, 1797.*
